

2010 QWEL EXAM

The Marin Municipal Water District is offering a self-study QUALIFIED WATER EFFICIENT LANDSCAPER (QWEL) exam allowing landscapers to attain QWEL designation without attending the 12 week QWEL training class. Participants MUST pass both the QWEL exam and conduct an irrigation system audit on their own using the QWEL irrigation audit forms. For your convenience we are offering an Assisted Irrigation Audit on October 16th just before exam.

LOCATION:

College of Marin, Indian Valley Campus, 1800 Ignacio Blvd., Novato, CA

WHEN:

Saturday, October 16, 2010 Exam and Assisted Irrigation Audit

For registration details, go to www.qwel.net. Participants must register by the registration deadline. Once registered, study materials and the irrigation audit form will be emailed to you.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Public and private sector landscape professional who manage:

- Residential landscapes and gardens
- Municipal landscapes
- Schools, parks and recreational facilities
- Commercial landscapes
- Construction of public and private landscapes

FOR MORE INFORMATION

Go to www.qwel.net or contact Greg Van Trump at the Marin Municipal Water District 415-945-1149 gvantrump@marinwater.org

EXAM TOPICS

- Sonoma and Marin County Water Supplies
- Irrigation Basics
- Efficient Irrigation
- Soils
- Plants & Maintenance
- Integrated Pest Management
- Water Management
- Water Budgets
- Irrigation Scheduling
- Irrigation Controller Programming
- Valve, Controller & Field Wiring
- New Irrigation Technology

ADVANTAGES OF QWEL

- Be supported by local QWEL public relations programs and marketing
- Promote it to your clients as recognition of your skills in cutting-edge water management and sustainable maintenance practices.
- Develop a network with other QWEL peers
- It's FREE!

The QWEL program is

EPA WATERSENSE
CERTIFIED.